Turin, Nov. 30. N. S.

THE Regiment of the Croix Blanche has march'd into this City, where it is to quarter during the Winter; and the Regiment of Savoy began its March from hence on the ſame Day, in order to lie at Suſa till the opening of the next Campagne. The Envoy from the States General has received Orders from their High Mightineſſes for the Embarkation of the Palatine Horſe to ſerve in Spain. The State of Milan has appointed the Marquis de Caſtiglione, and the Count d'Oppitone, to wait upon his Catholick Majeſty at Barcelona, in order to ſollicite the Confirmation of their Privileges, and lay before his Majeſty many other Matters which concern the Good of his Subjects in that Dutchy. The Marquis de Courtance arriv'd here two Days ago from Alexandria, where he is ſucceeded in his Command by the Marquis d'Andour; And it is ſaid the former will be ſent to the Imperial Court in the Character of Envoy Extraordinary. The Emperor's Miniſter here has notified to his Royal Highneſs his Maſter's Conſent to treat for an Equivalent inſtead of the Vigevanaſco; and declar'd, That his Imperial Majeſty will name Commiſſaries for that Negociation, as ſoon as the Duke declares who ſhall act on his Royal Highneſs's Part in that Affair. Letters of the 25th Inſtant, from on board Sir Thomas Dilks off of Corſica, ſay, He was then making for Leghorne, where it is ſuppos'd he is at preſent arriv'd, with the Britiſh and Dutch Ships under his Command.

Berne, Dec. 14. The French having continued to threaten Neufchatel with an Invaſion, and a conſiderable Number of Troops being actually arriv'd in the Franche-Compté, to take their Winter-Quarters there, Count Metternich has put the Country in a Poſture of Defence, and ſent a Regiment of 1200 Men, drawn out of the Militia, under the Command of experienc'd Officers, to guard the Paſſages of the Frontiers. That Miniſter has taken all neceſſary Precautions for the Security of the Country: And when the Ambaſſadors from the Canton of Berne were ſent to congratulate his Maſter's Acceſſion to that Principality, he demanded the Three following Points; 1. That the Canton of Berne would give 200 Men to ſerve on the Frontiers, as a publick Teſtimony that they took the Country into their Protection. 2. That they ſhould give Orders to their Militia to march without Delay to the Succour of Neufchatel, whenever they ſee their Beacons fir'd: And, 3. That when theſe Diſpoſitions are made and executed, the Canton would ſend a Deputation to Monſieur Puiſieux, to explain with him concerning the French King's Deſign on that Subject, and demand a definitive Anſwer, Whether that Prince is willing that the Country of Neufchatel ſhall remain in a Neutrality with him or not? Theſe Articles being expreſly contain'd in the Treaty of Combourgeoiſie between Bern and Neufchatel, are punctually comply'd with, notwithſtanding the Endeavours of the French to the contrary. On the 11th Inſtant a Diet of the Proteſtant Cantons met at Langhenthal, 10 Leagues off this Place, in order to take effectual Meaſures for the further Security of Neufchatel, and the Peace of Switzerland; and it is believ'd a Deputation went this Day from that Aſſembly to the French Ambaſſador, according to the Third Demand. We hear Monſieur Puiſieux is recall'd from hence; as is alſo Monſieur de Graville from the Griſons. On the 8th Inſtant Three Deputies arriv'd here from Neufchatel, to return the Compliment this Canton made Count Metternich by their ſolemn Deputation; and, having had their Audience Yeſterday, are this Day ſet out for Langhenthal, with the Deputies of this Canton, to be preſent at the Deliberations of the General Diet. It does not yet appear that France deſigns to commit Hoſtilities againſt Neufchatel; but whatever is intended from thence, the Principality is under no Apprehenſions of a Surprize, there having fallen ſo great a Quantity of Snow, as renders any Expedition at preſent impracticable: Beſides that, they have made all neceſſary Preparations for their Defence.

Copenhagen, Dec. 17. Monſieur Iſhmaelhoff, the Muſcovite Ambaſſador, who has reſided in this Court with that Character for 7 Years, had Yeſterday his Audience of Leave. The Ceremony with which that Miniſter was received was very particular; but conformable to the Manner in which Daniſh Miniſters have been complimented at Moſcow. At the Door of the Chamber of Audience, the Ambaſſador and all his Attendants deliver'd their Swords: After which his Excellency was conducted into the King's Preſence, and receiv'd by his Majeſty ſitting with his Hat on. The Ambaſſador expreſſed himſelf in Italian: His Majeſty's Anſwer was given by a Privy-Councellor in Daniſh; the King only adding a few Words in Confirmation of what his Miniſter had ſaid. The Miniſters of the Guarantees for the Treaty of Travendahl, now aſſembled at Hamburgh, having repreſented, That they could not employ their good Offices between the two contending Parties, unleſs they had Admiſſion to the Conferences with their Commiſſioners, which was not allow'd by the Daniſh Deputies; Mr. Pulteny, Envoy Extraordinary from Her Britiſh Majeſty, and the Miniſter from the States General, have made their Application to his Majeſty on that behalf; and the King was pleas'd to ſay, He would give his Commiſſioners ſuch Orders as they deſir'd.

Hague, Dec. 23. N. S. The Commotions which have of late been rais'd in the Province of Guelderland are quieted. The Town of Arnheim has receiv'd Troops; and the States have diſplac'd a Burgomaſter and two or three Magiſtrates who retir'd hither. Nimeguen has ſent Propoſitions to the States of Guelderland, aſſembled at Tiel, in order to incline that Body to fall in with the Reſolutions of the States General; and there is a Time fix'd within which theſe Differences are to be determin'd. They of Guelderland have ſeparated without declaring themſelves on that Subject; but being to re-aſſemble the next Month, it is not doubted but that the Affair will be wholly adjuſted within the limited Time. The States of Holland are to adjourn for
